

Campus Inclusion Performance

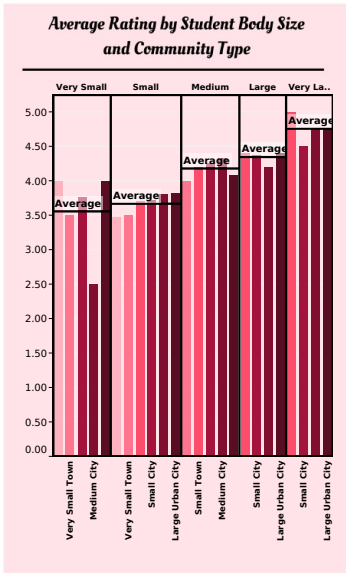

A map of the United States showing Average Inclusion Ratings by Region. The map is divided into four regions, each with a different shade of red/pink. The regions are labeled with black text: West, Midwest, Northeast, and South. The West region is the darkest red, the Midwest is the lightest pink, the Northeast is a medium pink, and the South is a bright red. The map is set against a white background with a thin black border.
